SYNOPSIS

The petitioner submits that he has been in unauthorised cultivation of one acre twenty guntas of government gomal land in Sy. No. 72 of Hosur Village, Bidadi Hobli, Ramanagaram Taluk, Bangalore rural district, for more than 20 years. He filed necessary application before the Land Grant Committee 4th respondent seeking regularisation which has been accepted through enquiry and regularisation intimated through the letters dated 09.02.2004 and 22.01.2007. He has also remitted necessary fees to the government treasury. The issuance of regularisation certificate is being delayed deliberately and intentionally. The petitioner apprehends allotment of this land to some 3rd parties due to interference of the local politics. Therefore, the petitioner has filed this writ petition, seeking a writ of mandamus directing the respondents for issuance of certificate of regularisation, the Petitioner has approached this Hon'ble Court under Article 226 & 227 of Constitution of India. The facts leading to the filing of the present case are narrated in the chronological order as follows:

The Hon'ble High Court Order in WP No. 2558/2007 stating that After careful perusal of the impugned communications dated 9.2.2004 and 22.1.2007 vide Annexures-B and C and the premium deposited by petitioner vide Annexure-D, it is duty cast on the jurisdictional competent authority of the respondents to consider the request made by petitioner and to pass appropriate orders. Keeping the request made by the petitioner in abeyance and not taking any decision in the matter, within a reasonable time is not fair on their part.

Therefore, without expressing any opinion on the merits and demerits of this case, it would suffice for this Court, if appropriate direction is issued to the 4* respondent to consider the request of the petitioner in accordance with law, and in the light of Annexures- B,C and D and to pass appropriate orders and dispose of the same, as expeditiously as possible, within three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, if not already considered and disposed of. With these observations, writ petition filed by petitioner stands disposed of.

Aggrieved by the inaction of the Respondents blaming one another, The Petitioner has visited often office of the Respondents but his efforts failed as the Respondents are not responding his request. The Petitioner is before this Hon'ble high Court in the present writ petition.

MEMORANDUM OF WRIT PETITION UNDER ARTICLE 226 AND 227 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

The Petitioner above named most respectfully submits as follows;

1. The address of the Petitioner's advocate for the purpose of service of notice, etc., is Bharathgowda B R, Advocate, No. 1135, 1st Floor, BEML Layout, Rajarajeshwari Nagar, Bangalore-560098.
2. The address of the Respondents for the purpose of notice, etc., is as stated in the cause-title.
3. The petitioner submit that he belongs to weaker section of the society residing permanently at Gollahalli Village, Hosur Post, Bidadi Hobli, Ramanagaram Taluk, Bangalore Rural District. He is agriculturalist by profession and he comes under the category of small farmer.
4. The petitioner submits that he has been the unauthorised cultivator of one acre twenty guntas in government gomala land bearing Sy. No. 72 of Hosur Villaltillage, Bidadi Habli, Ramanagaram Taluk having the boundary East by: remaining portion of gomal land, West by : Land belonging to Sri. Narasihma Swarny Temple, North by : Halli and South by : lands of Muniyappa & Shivanna (hereinafter referred to as the land in question), for the last 20 years. He filed appropriate application before the 3rd respondent seeking regularization of his unauthorised cultivation of the land in question on 18.11.1998. The copy of the acknowledgement for having received Form No. 53, issued by the 3rd respondent is produced herewith as ANNEXURE-A.

B

5. The petitioner submits that the 4th respondent held enquiry as contemplated under rules and examined the eligibility of the petitioner and regularised the unauthorised cultivation of the petitioner of the land in question through the resolution dated 30.01.2004. The decision of the 4th respondent-Committee was conveyed to the petitioner through the intimation-dated 09.02.2004 in No. LND. CR/ (53) / 1999-2000 and a copy of the said intimation is produced herewith as ANNEXURE-B. The issuance of certificate of regularisation in terms of the resolution dated 30.01.2004 has been pending with the 4th respondent. The petitioner has been meeting the 4th respondent since 2004 and requesting for collecting the regularisation fees and issue certificate. The collection of fees and issuance of certificate is postponed by the 4th respondent for one or the other reason. When the petitioner insisted the 4th respondent for issuance of certificate of regularisation, then only the 4th respondent issued a fresh intimation letter dated 22.01.2007 in No. LND.CR/805/1999-2000 directing the petitioner to remit the regularisation fees of Rupees 2230/- to the state Treasury and a copy of the said intimation letter is produced herewith as ANNEXURE-C
6. The petitioner submits that he has remitted Rs. 2230/- to the state treasury on 31.01.2007 in terms of the directions as per Annexures B & C and copy of the Voucher is produced herewith as ANNEXURE-D. The issuance of regularisation certificate is pending with the 4th respondent.
7. The petitioner submits that there appears to be serious development in the office of the 4th respondent. Some strangers are coming near the land in question and claiming that the land in question is being allotted in their favour by the 4th respondent. When the petitioner approached the 4th respondent requesting for issuance of certificate of regularisation in respect of the land in question, the 4th respondent is not giving proper reply. The petitioner apprehends the allotment of the land in question in favour of others ignoring the right and claim of the petitioner. The officials in the office of the 4th respondent informed the petitioner that the land in question may be allotted to others as per the latest development in the official circles.

8. The petitioner submits that he apprehending allotment of the land in question in favour of others, and without there being any alternative and efficacious remedy the petitioner is approaching this Hon'ble Court with this writ petition with the following among other grounds:

GROUND

9. The petitioner submits that the respondents have no powers to cancel the order of regularisation passed by the land grant Committee. The issuance of certificate of regularization is kept pending with ulterior motives despite the request and demand made in this regard. The local politics is playing the game in delaying the issuance of certificate of regularisation.
10. The petitioners submit that the present political set up is against to the interest of the petitioner. It is the political calculations to grant the land in question in favour of some 3rd parties.

PS

11. The petitioners submit that the land in question is still under his cultivation. The intended move on the part of respondents to grant the land in question in favour of some 3rd parties is against to law and procedure and the interest of the petitioner. The petitioner apprehends immediate grant of the land in question in favour of some 3rd parties. The request and demand of the petitioner for issuance of certificate of regularisation is being ignored.
12. The Petitioner has no other adequate, alternative, or efficacious remedy other than to file this Memorandum of writ petition under Article 226 & 227 of Constitution of India on the following amongst other.
13. The petitioners submits that they have not filed any other writ petition, suit or other proceedings before this Hon'ble Court, any other court or forum on the same cause of action. He also submits that he has no other efficacious, speedy and alternative remedy except by invoking the writ jurisdiction of this Hon'ble Court under Article 226 & 227 of the Constitution of India, on the following among other grounds to be urged at the time of hearing:

GROUND IN SUPPORT OF INTERIM PRAYER

14. The petitioners submit that he is in physical possession and enjoyment of the land in question. The respondents are under political pressure to grant the land in question to some 3rd parties. In such an event the petitioner would be subjected to hardship and injustice and it also amounts to procedural illegality. In the event of such an order of grant that may be passed by respondents in injustice and it also amounts to procedural illegality. In the event of such an order of grant that may be passed by respondents in favour of 3rd parties in respect of the land in question, the petitioner would be dispossessed from the land in question. It is just and necessary to pass interim order directing the respondents to not to grant the land in question in favour of 3rd parties pending disposal of this writ petition., later, Aggrieved by the act of the Respondents, Petitioner filed a Writ Petition before High Court in WP No. 2885/2007 (KLR-RES) wherein the Hon'ble High Court was passed the order yet the Respondents have not considered the same, Hence, the Petitioner has approached this Hon'ble Court under Article 226 & 227 of Constitution of India.

15. The Petitioners have very good case on merits the balance of convenience lies in their favor. If the interim relief as prayed for is not granted the Petitioners will suffer from irreparable loss and damage. If the same is granted no loss or hardship will cause to the Respondents.
16. It is submitted that the Petitioners have not filed any other Petition seeking the relief sought in this Petition and no such Petition has been either filed earlier nor disposed of anytime earlier hereto.
17. In the circumstances, it is just and necessary for an interim order of stay and If an interim order is not granted the petitioners will be put to irreparable loss and injury. Hence, he prays for an interim order. in so far as the petitioners are concerned during the pendency of the instant writ petition, in the interest of justice and equity.

4. I have heard learned counsel appearing for petitioner and learned Additional Government Advocate for respondents-1 to 4.

5. After careful perusal of the impugned communications dated 9.2.2004 and 22.1.2007 vide Annexures-B and C and the premium deposited by petitioner vide Annexure-D, it is duty cast on the jurisdictional competent authority of the respondents to consider the request made by petitioner and to pass appropriate orders. Keeping the request made by the petitioner in abeyance and not taking any decision in the matter, within a reasonable time is not fair on their part.

Therefore, without expressing any opinion on the merits

Taluk, Bangalore Rural District in terms of the intimation of regularisation as per Annexures-B and C forthwith.

3. The only grievance of the petitioner in this writ petition is that, petitioner is cultivating the land in question unauthorisedly since more than twenty years and he has filed necessary application before the 4th respondent seeking regularization of his unauthorized cultivation. The 4th respondent, after considering the application filed by petitioner has issued a communication dated 9.2.2004 and 22.1.2007 vide Annexures-B and C respectively, stating that 4th respondent has regularized the unauthorized cultivation of the petitioner in respect of land measuring 1 acre 20 guntas in Sy.No. 72 of Hosur Village, Bidadi Hobli, Ramanagaram Taluk, Bangalore Rural District. Thereafter, petitioner has deposited the premium amount vide Annexure-D as early as on 31st January 2007. Insptie of that, the competent authority has not issued any Grant Certificate. Therefore, petitioner and demerits of this case, it would suffice for this Court, if appropriate direction is issued to the 4th respondent to consider the request of the petitioner in accordance with law, and in the light of Annexures-B,C and D and to pass appropriate orders and dispose of the same, as expeditiously as possible, within three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, if not already considered and disposed of.

With these observations, writ petition filed by petitioner stands disposed of.

Learned Additional Government Advocate is permitted to file memo of appearance for respondents-1 to 4 within three weeks from today.
